MYNYDD CLIMBING CLUB – MEETS LIST 2017

A big thanks to the 38 people who replied to the survey. Your responses have helped shape what I hope is going to be an exciting meets calendar for next year. An especially big thanks to the people who offered to lead a meet! Almost all meets have a leader now – just a couple of slots left so be quick!

Google Forms produced some useful graphs from the survey. If you'd like to view the results then there will be a link on the website. Most of the meets were decided on where the majority voted, however in some instances preference was given to those who offered to lead a meet.

I could lead this one given I live here!

There isn't any good climbing Yorkshire 😞

Yorkshire Huts tend to be expensive but I'm sure we could find a comfy one somewhere.

Anywhere at all - it'll rain anyway. Let's just eat loads and get fat...

...well, some of them. But seriously, I have lots of great ideas of where to suggest meets for 2018. Gower, Ailefroide, Catalunya, Swanage and a visit to Keith George's 'local' crags all sound like great fun.

Anyway, that's about it from me now. The Tuesday evening meets list is already in the pipeline and will be available in the New Year. Before then, if you have any good ideas for a Full Moon Tuesday then please get in touch. I look forward to seeing you on some meets soon!

Ta,

David
